Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—woman's health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-racked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Slip women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as strictly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. ## UNVEIL STATUES OF HEROIC POLES

Memory of Pulaski and Kosciuszko Is Honored in Washington.

TAFT ONE OF SPEAKERS

First Polish National Congress Will Convene in Capital To-Day.

Washington, D. C., May 11.—Two monuments to the memory and deeds of Pulaski and Kosciuszko, the Polish heroes, both of whom fought and one of whom died that liberty in America might live, were dedicated here to-day. The time of the dedications was so arranged that President Taft could attend each.

While the President made the principal address at the unveiling of the monument to Pulaski, which stands in the triangle at Thirteenth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Secretary of War Dickinson was making the principal address at the unveiling of the monument to Kosciuszko, which stands in Lafayette Park, opposite the White House, and J. F. Smulski, of the Polish National Alliance, made an address in Polish.

Gift From Poles. The monument to Pulaski was erected by an act of Congress, but the statue to Kosciuszko is a gift to the nation by the Polish National Alliance and other organizations of Poles who have made their homes in the free republic for which their distinguished countrymen fought. There was a double significance to the unveiling of the monument to Kosciuszko, for it marked the opening here to-morrow of the First Polish National Congress, to attend which thousands of Poles from all over the United States have come. The purpose of the Congress is to discuss in all its phases the condition of the Polish nation, to acquire familiarity with the needs of the Polish national life and find ways and means of fulfilling them.

The ceremony which preceded the dedication of the statues were long planned and very elaborate. A military parade, in which all the regular troops stationed at Fort Myer, as well as the National Guard of the District of Columbia, marched, was one of the features. Brigadier-General Tasker H. Bliss, United States Army, was in command.

In the heart of the busier section of the city the monument to Pulaski stands fourteen feet from the sidewalk in a triangular green. In the saddle of a charger is mounted the figure of the hero in the Polish hussar uniform, in which he won command of a brigade of Washington's cavalry for his gallant conduct at the battle of Red Bank, always wore the uniform of his beloved fatherland, and it clothed his breast through three years of valiant fighting on American soil until he fell at the siege of Savannah in 1779 and died on the United States flag of war was in the harbor two days. The statue of Kosciuszko, a map of West Point on one hand, the other on his sword.

The sculptor, Chedzinski, gathered material for his work in Paris, Berlin and parts of Poland, and secured from the descendants of Pulaski a life-size painting of the hero mounted on a horse, done by Pulaski's sister. In Lafayette Park, a beautiful shaded square across Pennsylvania Avenue from the White House, the monument to Kosciuszko, with the exception of one, completes the set of five planned here. The others are to General Lafayette and Count Rochambeau, who commanded the French allies at Yorktown. On the remaining corner will be erected the statue of Baron von Steuben. An immense statue of General Andrew Jackson is in the center of the park.

Hero of Two Hemispheres. Kosciuszko is represented in the figure as the hero of two hemispheres, as his countrymen love to refer to him. A map of the United States with the American eagle guarding is on the front of the pedestal. On the other side is the outline of Europe and Asia, attacked by the snake of despotism, with the Polish eagle fighting in defense. A Polish soldier, wounded and falling, is being defended by a Polish farmer with a scythe. Opposite, an American soldier is cutting the shackles of an American farmer which bind him to the foreign yoke. Mounted on the pedestal is the statue of Kosciuszko, a map of West Point on one hand, the other on his sword. The valiant deeds of the man who fought consistently for liberty in an old world and now so consistently that he refused to lend him to the plans of Napoleon for the restoration of Poland—are recalled by the inscriptions on the monument.

Driven to this country by an unhappy love affair, says the republican established, and did not return to his native Poland until 1788. When Russia attacked Poland in 1792 Kosciuszko, with 4,000 men, held Duhlenka against 18,000 Russians in a famous battle. After the second partition of Poland in 1795, he put himself at the head of a national movement and was proclaimed dictator and commander-in-chief. Covered with wounds, he fell into the hands of his enemies and was restored to liberty by the Emperor Paul two years later. Alexander in 1814 refused to grant an amnesty to Poles in foreign lands and to make Kosciuszko constitutional King of Poland, and for the remainder of his life he led his sword and lived the peaceful life of a farmer in France until he was killed when his horse plunged over a precipice. The Emperor Alexander later moved his body to Crawford and had it laid beside John Sobieski.

PRESENTS FLAG TO NEW ARMOY

Confederate Colors to Decorate Quarters of Richmond Light Infantry Blues.

At the regular monthly meeting of Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held yesterday morning in Lee Camp Hall, it was unanimously decided to present a silk Confederate battle flag, to be hung in the new armory of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, as a memorial to members of that organization who fell in the War Between the States.

It was also decided to send a floral design to be placed in the Confederate burial ground at Johnson's Island on June 8, when a Confederate monument will be unveiled there. Chapter members were unanimous as to inviting Major J. C. Hemphill to make an address at Lee Camp Hall on the evening of June 2, when crosses of honor will be bestowed on Confederate veterans by the Daughters. Springfield school chorus will be requested to sing Confederate airs on that occasion.

Committees were appointed for Memorial Day purposes. Mrs. Archer Anderson was chosen to represent Richmond Chapter, U. D. C., on a committee, that will unite with the Confederate Memorial Literary Society in marking Confederate sites. The chapter decided not to undertake the sale of Christmas stamps for the Arlington Monument Association for fear of interfering with the National Red Cross Association.

The corresponding secretary of the chapter was requested to send letters of condolence to Mrs. W. W. Grassett and Mrs. D. A. Timberlake. Members added to the chapter roll were Mrs. W. L. Guman, Mrs. Rosa Bowles Wright, Miss Roberta Archer Jeffrey and Miss Mary Willis Minor.

GUESTS OF BLUES DEPART FOR HOME

New England Infantrymen End Continuous Round of Pleasure.

Governor Frank B. Weeks, of Connecticut; Governor Aram J. Pothier, of Rhode Island, and their parties, with the officers and enlisted men of the Governor's Foot Guards of Hartford and New Haven, left Richmond yesterday morning at 9 o'clock for their homes. The Providence Light Infantry left at the earlier.

Marching through the streets to Elba Station, the men appeared a little shaky. This was, of course, due solely to the lack of sleep the night before when they were up late at the hall at the Blues' armory. The executives and members of their parties rode in carriages.

The visitors, judging from their expressions, were more than pleased with the reception given them by the Richmond Light Infantry Blues. There was something doing every minute from the time of arrival Monday morning until the last dance at the armory early yesterday, with views of the comet coming as an afterthought.

EPILEPTIC HOME WILL BE ERECTED

Committee Appointed to Build, Equip and Organize Institution.

Considerable discussion was had yesterday at the quarterly meeting of the State General Hospital Board at Williamsburg over the affairs of the Epileptic Colony at Lynchburg, which is soon to be established. There was some little question as to whether or not it should be under the direction of the general board. There was, however, no dispute as to prevent all possible complications the three men who were appointed as a special board of directors under the act of the last Legislature were appointed a managing committee by the board.

The resolution adopted in this connection was as follows: "Resolved, That Dr. H. W. Dew, S. L. Ferguson and Irving P. Whitehead, members of this board, be, and they are hereby, constituted a committee of three to build, equip and organize a colony provided for in the act of the General Assembly, approved February 16, 1910, and to employ such temporary officers and employees as may, in their judgment, be required, and to fix their compensation until said colony is turned over to the board, under the provisions of the said act, with free power to act in the premises under such provisions, provided, however, that the said committee shall make report of its operations to the regular quarterly meeting of this board."

Good Attendance. Members of the general board present were Judge James L. Tredway, of Chatham (chairman); J. G. Bohannon, of Surry; Shirley Carter, of Winchester; Robert Gilliam, of Petersburg; W. H. Landes, of Staunton; Captain John G. Osborne, of Reaford; Dr. H. U. Stephenson, of Toano, and C. C. Tallafiero, of Roanoke.

Chairmen of committees appointed to inspect the several State Hospitals for the insane reported that they had found these institutions in good condition.

Judge Samuel W. Williams, Attorney-General, was present during the session of the board, advising that body on legal questions.

A mass of routine business was transacted, the board adjourning at 1 o'clock. Several of the members came to Richmond last night.
